

Baton Rouge's Hope for Haiti

As the dust settles and the media attention dies, business owners and musicians in Baton Rouge are coming together to continue to raise funds for the Haiti relief effort. Sponsored by Psychare of Louisiana, the benefit will take place at a private home in Baton Rouge and feature some of the city's most talented musicians. Eric Baskin will start the evening off followed by the most sought after band in Louisiana, U4ria featuring lead singer Arianne Deurise.

The event will be in honor of our very own Patrick Carriere. He's a professor at Southern University who lost four family members in the earth quake. His 84 year old mother barely survived. Donations can be made in his name or to whom ever you wish.

Wine, cheese, and finger food will be served at the event. A minimum of $50 donation will go to the Hope Village/Hope for Haiti fund. For more information call 225-268-6275 or 225-445-3466. If you are unable to attend, checks can be made payable to Hope Village/Hope for Haiti and mailed to:
