

CALL FOR VOLUNTEERS

Saturday, November 14, 2009

Volunteers are needed to support a one-day free health care event serving uninsured patients in New Orleans, Louisiana on Saturday, November 14, 2009.

The C.A.R.E. (Communities Are Responding Everyday) Clinic will be held at the New Orleans Morial Convention Center in halls I2J.

TCARE has volunteer opportunities for all aspects of this event:

- Medical professional volunteer opportunities for MD, NP, PA, RN, LVN, EMT, and MA.
- Non-medical volunteer opportunities for clerical, translation, greeters, and logistics.

On-line registration and details are available at www.regonline.com/neworleanscare

Come help the uninsured gain access to care and health screenings that they otherwise may not receive. New Orleans C.A.R.E needs you to be a part of this historical and meaningful event by sharing your talents.

The C.A.R.E. Clinic is sponsored by National Association of Free Clinics (NAFC).

If you have comments or questions please email them to neworleansclinic@freeclinics.us